Personal Information

eToolsHQ LLC only collects the personal information necessary for billing, processing payments, setting up user accounts, establishing user names and passwords, and communicating with users. All personal information gathered from software users will be handled with strict confidentiality. Contact information such as email addresses may be used to communicate software updates and to communicate information about any new products.

Third Parties

Any personal information provided to eToolsHQ LLC will not be traded, rented, sold or otherwise shared with anyone outside of eToolsHQ LLC. From time to time, we may engage third parties to process your information on our behalf, however, none of those third parties will have permission to retain, share, store or use personal information for any reason other than providing the service we requested.

Security

To prevent unauthorized access, disclosure and improper use of your information, we have established appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial safeguards to protect the information we collect in accordance with our privacy policy.
